

ASSESSMENT and FEEDBACK - QMU Half Day CONFERENCE

Friday 3 December 2010, 9.15-1.15, Boardroom

9.15 Tea / coffee & scones

9.30 Welcome

9.35 Keynote – Professor David Nicol:
Assessment for learning: the benefits of generating feedback

10.30 QMU Assessment Patterns –Iddo Oberski, Jim Sharp
Discussion of a QMU survey of assessment patterns (types and quantity of assessment at each year level) undertaken during 2010

11.00 Assessment and Feedback in Practice
15 minute presentations from QMU staff demonstrating what they are doing in assessment and feedback – circulate around 4 of 5 tables

Richard Bent, Assessment of New Enterprise Creation Module	Joe Goldblatt & Susi Peacock, Video Assessment: A case study of using Windows MovieMaker and Learning Objects to promote collaboration, skills development and research evidence	Richard Kerley, Marking electronically; how the keyboard replaces the quill pen
Bianca Mastrominico, Aligning and embedding formative assessment, progressive feedback and use of e-portfolio in a performance based module	Virginia Bell, Feedback on feedback: A student/ELS perspective on assessment and feedback

12.00 Drawing out the strategies: what can we take back into our practices? (small group discussion and plenary)

12.45 Lunch

13.15 Close

N.B. If you cannot attend the whole conference, just attend the sessions you can attend. Please register at: <http://apps/capforms/workshopbooking.asp> and let CAPAdmin@qmu.ac.uk know if you don't require catering on arrival or lunch